PAYNT POINT$

INCENTIVE PROGRAM

A competition incentive program that directly rewards Youth and Amateur exhibitors for earning points in APHA-approved shows.

Why Paynt Points?

- Incentivize owning, breeding & showing Paint Horses
- Stimulate APHA shows
- Bold strategy to reverse a 20-year market-wide decline in traditional show participation

APHA is the only breed association investing in a program that pays exhibitors back for participation at its shows!

Paynt Point Payouts

APHA adds $500,000 each year to the purse ($250,000 in the first 6 months; $250,000 in the second 6 months)

$2 of your $3/entry show processing fee goes into the Paynt Points purse—100% is paid back to exhibitors, with no administrative fees. All divisions pay in.

Twice-A-Year Payouts

(APHA-Added Money)
+ (Total APHA Entries x $2)
Paynt Points Purse

Paynt Points payouts are estimated at $10/point or more

Who Gets Paid?

Participation is automatic

Every Youth, Amateur, Novice & Walk-Trot point at APHA-approved shows pays!

(includes regional shows, World Show, Halter Million & National Championships)

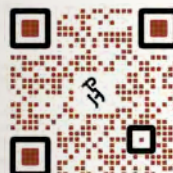

Rewards our largest group of exhibitors:

- About 80% of horses at APHA shows enter Youth/Amateur classes
- Almost 70% of these exhibitors earn APHA points eligible for Paynt Points payouts
- APHA anticipates adding Open point payouts in the future

Minimal Investment = Big Rewards

Exclusions

- Non-point-earning APHA classes (futures, Chrome Cash, PBRIP, etc)
- All-breed classes
- No payout for Open points ... yet

2024 APHA YEAR-END PERFORMANCE REVIEW

ON THE COVER

Landing the No. 1 Open Horse title with PS Remington was a surprise to owner Kennedy Beltz of Friendswood, Texas. The Youth rider just wanted to capture the High-Point Youth Ranch Horse title—she did that and more, thanks to the partnership forged with her trusty mount. Read their full story on page 38.

PS Remington is a 2017 bay overo gelding by Spooks Gotta Gun and out of Smart Chic Toy (QH). Kennedy owns the gelding, who was bred by Patsy Shelton Schutz of Pottsboro, Texas.

In the Face of Adversity

Aliyah Attar powered through an unthinkable hurdle to clinch the No.1 spot on both the Top 20 Youth 13 & Under and Youth Rookie of the Year.

1 Youth 13 & Under

Aliyah Attar & Invitation To Ride

Qualifying Points: 174.5

Hometown: Pepperell, Massachusetts

Horse's Stats: A 2009 sorrel overo gelding by Special Invitation and out of Bourbon St Fancy

Owner/Lessee: Aliyah Attar

Breeder: B & W Quarter Horse Ranch, Abilene, Kansas

Eleven-year-old Aliyah Attar is a first generation equestrian and the true definition of an “early starter.” Riding under the guidance of trainer Paige Benson since age 2, she began showing in APHA events in 2021 and has been on the road to success ever since.

Aliyah set modest goals for herself and her mount of three years, Invitation To Ride, during the 2024 show season.

“We had our eyes set on [the] Rookie,” she said. “But mostly, I wanted to be better acquainted with ‘Pippin.’ I wanted us to become one unit, not just a rider and a horse.”

Tragedy struck shortly before the APHA World Championship Show: Aliyah’s father passed away, understandably dealing a tough blow to her motivation.

“I lost a lot of my mojo,” she recalled. “But when Eastern Nationals came, I said, ‘I’m not going to let that happen again. I’m back, and I’m in it.’”

There, Aliyah had one of her most memorable wins. She decided to enter Novice Youth Trail for fun, recognizing that it was a large class with older exhibitors in the draw. The gamble paid off.

“We had a great run,” Aliyah said. “Pippin was really with me. We locked in, had our heads in the game and we actually won the class!”

The kind gelding, who Aliyah describes as having a larger-than-life and very human-like personality, is a bright spot on dark days for the equestrienne. She found that Pippin was a balm for her grieving soul in the months following her father’s passing.

“He has kind eyes,” she said. “He really is a motivation booster. When I’m at school and am having a hard day, I look at photos of him and just think how amazing he is, and how it’s only a little longer until I can see him. He’s my best friend.”

Aliyah hopes to continue building her relationship with Pippin on a more personal level and spend more time going to shows to support others in 2025. Her parting advice for other aspiring exhibitors is simple.

“I think if you have a passion for horses and showing, it doesn’t matter if you think you’re going to do bad or that other people aren’t going to like it,” she said. “Your style makes you unique, and you should totally do it!”

An Unstoppable Streak

Emma Goffard takes home a fourth No. 1 Youth 14–18 title with her beloved Candy Confidential.

1 Youth 14–18

Emma Goffard & Candy Confidential

Qualifying Points: 397

Hometown: De Pere, Wisconsin

Horse's Stats: A 2015 chestnut overo gelding by All Time Fancy and out of Too Sleepy For Candy

Owner/Lessee: Rachel A. Goffard, De Pere, Wisconsin

Breeder: Susan Juroe, Longmont, Colorado

After winning her fourth No. 1 Youth 14-18 title in 2024, Emma Goffard remains as grateful as ever—not just for the wins, but for her teammate, Candy Confidential, better known as “Finn.” The two have been inseparable since Emma was 14.

“It feels amazing, but it means so much more than just the title,” Emma said. “I grew up with Finn. Seeing how far we’ve come and the goals we’ve accomplished is really special.”

Now 19, Emma is a neuroscience sophomore at Texas Christian University in Fort Worth, Texas. Balancing school and riding is challenging, but she makes time to visit Finn at trainer Shannon Watters’ barn in nearby Whitesboro, Texas.

For her final Youth year, Emma knew she had to go for the No. 1 title one last time.

“Four is my lucky number, and after winning three years in a row, I wanted to finish [my] Youth [career] strong,” Emma said.

Emma focused on overcoming anxiety in the show pen throughout the year.

“In 2023, I had an all-or-nothing mindset—perfectionism at its peak. But this year, if something went wrong, I kept going,” Emma said. “That shift helped me grow as a rider and person. Not everything will be perfect—our horses aren’t perfect either. I’ve learned to never stop trying because every point adds up.”

Through it all, Finn has remained her perfect partner.

“He’s the cutest, most perfect horse in the world,” Emma said. “He’s a big goofball with so much personality.”

Now, Emma is exploring the Amateur division with a fresh perspective.

“It’s such a weird feeling—there’s no pressure. If I don’t want to do the trail, I don’t have to do trail,” Emma said. “That ‘Don’t mess up; get all the points’ mindset is not there. It’s just fun and ‘Go with the flow.’ Somehow, we ended up winning high-point at our first Amateur show, which was so special. I am excited to keep showing and see where the journey takes us.”

Emma thanks her mom, Rachel, trainer Shannon Watters, Erin Fick and her sister, Catherine, for their support. Emma lives by the motto, “You haven’t failed until you stop trying—so never give up.” Whether in the show pen or the classroom, that mindset continues to drive her success.

The Learning Year

Alyssa Bass was focused on learning new events in 2024—she was surprised to find herself in contention for a year-end title, too.

1 Novice Youth

Alyssa K. Bass & A Sultry Playboy

Qualifying Points: 210

Hometown: Newport Beach, California

Horse's Stats: A 2011 chestnut overo gelding by Good N Sultry (QH) and out of Dream Of Fancy

Owner/Lessee: Alyssa K. Bass

Breeder: David J. Halverson, Urbana, Ohio

Pressure isn't anything new to 12-year-old Alyssa Bass. She started competing in APHA events six years ago, first showing at the APHA World Championship Show in Walk-Trot events.

Alyssa was practically born in the barn and raised in the saddle. She competes on the hunter/jumper circuit in California year-round when she's not riding in Paint shows with A Sultry Playboy. She's found a lot of similarities between the two types of competition, including pattern planning and counting strides.

A few years ago, Alyssa's parents, Kristen and Rob, gave their daughter a Western pleasure mare for her birthday; the goal was to compete in all-around events later on with that horse, A Sensational Paint. While the mare was learning a bevy of new events, Alyssa needed a seasoned mount to learn on as well. The Basses leased "Playboy" from owner Tracy Billing to serve as her tutor.

"He taught me a lot about showing the trail class," Alyssa said. "He's so forgiving if I make a mistake."

The past year was meant to be one spent learning for Alyssa. After competing at the 2024 APHA Youth World Championship Show, where she and Playboy earned a reserve world championship in Youth Hunter Under Saddle 13 & Under, Alyssa realized she had a chance at earning her first national year-end title.

"We weren't really planning on [going for the title]," Alyssa said. "He was supposed to be sold at the World Show."

"But those plans fell through," Kristen said. "Then we realized that Alyssa was doing well, and we decided that we would give it a try. If it worked, it worked. At the beginning of December, we were in Florida, and at the end of December, we were in Arizona—a lot of traveling."

The new events she's learned have challenged Alyssa, which she enjoys. She is grateful to her trainer, Lisa Ligon, for her guidance and encouragement and thankful for Playboy, too.

"It takes the whole village," Kristen said, "everyone from Rob, to Lisa, to our barn friends. It was great to have that support."

Something Special

For Ellen Berndtsson, winning the No. 1 Youth Solid Paint-Bred title was a family affair aboard homebred CBS Mechanical Deer.

Owner/Lessee/Breeder: Anders Berndtsson, Atvidaberg, Sweden

Paint Horses are a family affair for Ellen Berndtsson of Atvidaberg, Sweden. Mom and Dad—Penny and Anders—breed and show along with Ellen, and Penny is also a professional trainer. This year, the 16-year-old earned her first APHA No. 1 year-end title, capturing the top spot on the Youth Solid Paint-Bred chart with CBS Mechanical Deer.

Ellen has known “Little John” since he was born in 2020.

“He was literally born into my lap,” she said. “Then and there, I decided that it was him and I. We are both energetic, which makes us a good match, I think. He’s something special on the inside. We have a special connection, and I think people notice.”

The duo began showing together in 2022. In 2023, they made their debut on APHA’s Top 10 Youth Solid Paint-Bred list, ranking sixth overall. For 2024, Ellen simply aspired to improve over the previous year’s result—winning the champion’s trophy saddle was a lofty ambition and one she initially thought was out of reach, especially after she was unable to compete at her first show in Spring 2024 because of a broken foot.

When she resumed showing in May, Ellen and Little John wasted little time making their presence known. They were able to rack up substantial points at the European Paint Horse Championship and Dutch Paint Horse Championship, which helped vault them up the year-end leaderboard. Adding jumping to their skillset helped too, Ellen says.

Despite access to a professional trainer in her own family, Ellen takes pride in the fact that she trained Little John herself.

“I wanted him and our performance to be all my doing,” she said; Ellen did allow Penny to show Little John in a few Open classes in 2024. “I’m very proud that we did this as a family, both the breeding and the showing. It feels almost unattainable to reach where we ended up, and I’m very happy for that and honored to have done it with him.

“It’s been a very intense season—stressful, traveling all over and combining it with school, early mornings, late nights and literally doing hot swaps from one horse to another—but it sure has been a whole lot of fun,” Ellen said.

‘Luv’ the Horse First

Focusing on refining details and having fun, Shannon Yeaton and Lucky In Luv captured the No. 1 Amateur title for 2024.

1 Amateur

Shannon Yeaton & Lucky In Luv

Qualifying Points: 347

Hometown: Whitesboro, Texas

Horse’s Stats: A 2017 red roan overo mare by Lazy Luvah and out of Sensational Dee

Owner/Lessee: Shannon Yeaton

Breeder: Caroline Nielson, Las Vegas, Nevada

The daughter of a third-generation dairy-farming family from New Hampshire, Shannon Yeaton didn’t begin riding until age 16. She made her way to Texas after graduating from William Woods University in Missouri, where she immersed herself in the equine world as a talented exhibitor and breeding/barn manager.

“I got started in the horse game late, but learned that if you want something bad enough, you find a way to make it work,” Shannon said.

Shannon purchased Lucky In Luv in 2019 from friend Ally Fink. The match was kismet, and they soon started racking up championships under the guidance of trainer Shannon Watters. For 2024, the veteran team focused on refining details.

“Perfecting more of the small, credit-earning maneuvers can add up to bigger scores,” she explained. “Something else that was a challenge is how to maintain the mental game that is horse showing.”

“I didn’t go out last year gunning for the No. 1 spot. If it was meant to be, then it would be, but I knew I wanted to break into the Top 10. I’ve hung out at the 11th spot [on the Top 20 list] for two years now, and I told Shannon and Erin [Fick] that I didn’t care where I ended up so long as that wasn’t it!”

Sticking to the plan, Shannon and “Bailey” consistently climbed the Amateur leaderboard. They even qualified for—and made the finals at—the Cinch Invitational Horsemanship Challenge, a special event offered at the National Snaffle Bit Association World Championship Show.

“My goal was to be consistent from class to class, and results started to show,” Shannon said. “I very easily could have allowed the pressure to take away the fun, but any chance I get to show Bailey is a blessing, and I always remind myself how far we both have come. At the end of the day, I do this because I love the horse, first, and the lifetime friends I’ve made along the way.”

When Shannon found herself and Bailey in the No. 1 spot at the year’s end, she was at a loss for words.

“It’s unreal,” she said. “I truly never thought I would achieve this, and I’m so eternally grateful. I have said it a million times, but I’ll never be able to say it enough: thank you. I’m thankful for my village, I’m thankful for my horse, and I’m thankful for my journey to be in this position.”

Going for Broke

A show season earmarked for finishing her self-trained mare Sweet Lazy Sensations led Pam Switzer to the No. 1 Masters Amateur title.

1 Masters Amateur

Pamela Switzer & Sweet Lazy Sensations

Qualifying Points: 234.5

Hometown: Busby, Alberta, Canada

Horse's Stats: A 2018 bay overo mare by Zippos Sensation and out of Lotza Lazy (QH)

Owner/Lessee: Pamela Switzer

Breeder: Simons Show Horses LLC, Aubrey, Texas

Sweet Lazy Sensations was only seven hours old when Pam Switzer fell in love with her.

While riding at Simons Show Horses in February 2018, Pam happened to glance out the window as a bay overo filly—"Hayley"—was being brought inside with her dam.

"I thought, 'Oh, there's a cutie,'" she recalled. "I went out and phoned my husband; I told him I was buying a horse. This one had to be mine—it was basically a done deal when I saw her."

Having lost a couple years of her horse-show life due to COVID restrictions in Canada during the pandemic, Pam's goal for 2024 was to finish Hayley's training. As it turns out, bigger things were in store.

"The next thing you know, I'm climbing to the top," she said.

The pair mostly showed in Western all-around events throughout the year, with Pam citing showmanship as her favorite class. She and Hayley's win in the Masters Amateur Showmanship at Western Nationals was a special highlight.

"We had some really great competitors show up, and numbers were good," she explained. "I knew we'd have to put 110 percent forward to have a chance [of winning]. I was super proud of how she performed and locked in with me. I didn't have to worry about where she was, only about what I looked like and making sure we hit our marks."

Pam describes Hayley as exceedingly honest, good-minded and "in your pocket"—helpful traits when ascending year-end charts. The Switzers traveled as far as the U.S. East Coast showing Paint Horses last year, and despite the many miles beneath their trailer tires, Pam wouldn't have done anything differently.

"It was well worth it in the end because showing to me is not just about getting your horse shown," she said. "It's about meeting people and the friendships you find along the way."

Becoming the top Masters Amateur with Hayley has been an especially poignant journey for Pam, who has brought the mare along herself. .

"You have to believe in yourself," Pam said. "You have to practice at home, pretending you're being judged, and work on checking your emotions when you enter the arena. Be consistent, and the results will come. I strongly believe that if you know your horse, you're going to do OK."

Finding Their Stride

Balancing motherhood and competition, Celeste Berger and Ima Hugable Impulse overcame a rocky start to clinch a No. 1 title.

1 Novice Amateur

Celeste Berger & Ima Hugable Impulse

Qualifying Points: 293

Hometown: Magnolia, Texas

Horses' Stats: A 2013 sorrel overo mare by A Scenic Impulse and out of Hugable Jet

Owner: Celeste Berger

Breeder: George Ready Hernando, Mississippi

Despite not showing consistently until recently, Ima Hugable Impulse and Celeste Burger found success in 2024 competing in a wide variety of Novice Amateur classes.

"I've owned Ima Hugable Impulse for three years, but I have two young kids, so it has taken me a little longer to be able to show consistently," she said.

"Presley" has quite a personality, Celeste says.

"Presley definitely has a dry sense of humor, but she looks forward to her cookies at the end of every good ride," Celeste said. "She keeps me on my toes and challenges me, but she's a great partner!"

Going into the 2024 show season, the horsewoman's biggest goal was originally the World Show.

"We ended up having an OK World Show, but had some bobbles, so we decided to evolve our goals and target the national shows and being No. 1 in the Novice Amateur division," Celeste said. "At the beginning of the year, I was still trying to figure Presley out. However, I learned a lot at that World Show, and I felt like we really hit our stride together by late summer."

Their most notable 2024 wins included a reserve Eastern national championship in Novice Amateur Horsemanship, earning a Top Five at the World Show in showmanship, and winning national championships in Novice Amateur horsemanship and trail along with an all-around title at the Western National Championship, where everything seemed to fall into place.

"I had struggled in the trail all year," she said. "To put all the pieces together was very exciting. It made it that much more exciting to win it at a big show with big classes—the APHA put on a really great show!"

Being challenged by her trainer has helped Celeste succeed.

"I am very grateful for my trainer, Lisa Ligon at 2L Performance Horses. She is always challenging us to step up and has us ready to show," Celeste said. "We're looking forward to moving up to the Amateur classes, and my daughter is even going to start showing Presley this year in Walk-Trot classes, so it should be a fun year with new goals!"

Cowgirl Tough

Jamie Smithenry overcame pain and obstacles to finally earn a year-end title.

1 Amateur Walk-Trot

Jamie Smithenry & No Doubt Ima Ten

Qualifying Points: 360.5

Hometown: Willow Hill, Illinois

Horse's Stats: A 2018 bay overo gelding by No Doubt Im Lazy (QH) and out of Hide Your Assets

Owner/Lessee: Jamie Smithenry

Breeder: Steven & Lisa Grider, Bismarck, Missouri

Horse girls are tough girls, but they might not come tougher than Jamie Smithenry. The Willow Hill, Illinois, resident grew up riding horses—she started with a pony and then moved up to 4-H, open shows and then breed shows as she got older. Jamie sustained her share of bumps and bruises along the way, but those weren't as rough as the obstacles she's dealt with more recently.

When No Doubt Ima Ten was only 4, Jamie sustained a cracked knee, making mounting and dismounting difficult.

"I had to have people help roll me on and off of him," Jamie recalled. "Probably half of his career, I've had a broken bone, and he's carried me through. I feel very grateful in the respect that I had a horse who could handle all of that."

Finally recovered from her knee injury, Jamie aimed for the Top 20 in 2023; in May however, a horse kicked her in the elbow. She suffered complications and once again needed help getting on and off "Snickers." Despite that, Jamie missed the No. 1 spot by less than two points. When 2024 rolled around, Jamie had no plans for goals besides having fun with her horse while still trying to recover from several surgeries and extensive therapy.

"I didn't really plan to show that much," she said. "Then in July, I looked at the points and was surprised. I thought it was attainable, and I'd give it a whirl."

It wasn't until the end of the year that Jamie was finally able to saddle her own horse again, which was just one of the major goals she accomplished in 2024. Others were hitting the 3,000-point mark with Snickers and helping her granddaughter, Oakley, show Snickers in lead line.

She's come a long way, experiencing the world of all-around showing in the past few years. Jamie rides with Julie Tenhouse and is grateful for the unwavering support of her trainer, barnmates and husband Terry.

"Other than 4-H, I never showed in showmanship, I had never shown in equitation, and I had only done a tiny bit of hunter under saddle," Jamie said. "I had a lot to learn before we get into the loping. He's just such an amazing horse; he's carried me through a lot."

Five-Star Pair

Picking up their fifth No. 1 title, Alena Helmcke and Hot Intent earn this one with a three-peat.

1 Amateur Solid Paint-Bred

Alena Helmcke & Hot Intent

Qualifying Points: 118

Hometown: Appel, Germany

Stats: A 2013 bay solid mare by One Hot Krymsun (QH) and out of Shes Doolins Nikita

Owner/Lessee/ Breeder: Alena Helmcke

Five-star reviews are for the cream of the crop, and Alena Helmcke knows her mare, Hot Intent, can definitely be described as such. The pair earned the No. 1 Amateur Solid Paint-Bred title for the third year straight in 2024. It's their fifth time overall, having earned the title in 2017, 2019, 2022, 2023 and 2024. It's an auspicious feat that is not lost on Alena.

"It was a wish," Alena said. "I was hoping to end the last [Solid Paint-Bred division show] season with a good Top 10 placing, so it was a goal that was more in the back of my head, not the main goal."

The mare, which Alena bred out of her APHA Hall of Fame mare, Shes Doolins Nikita, has been a blessing in and out of the arena. The 2024 show season was the last with "Kay" before the Solid Paint-Bred division was combined with Regular Registry classes, but it's certainly not the final season for this winning duo.

"My mare [Shes Doolins Nikita] passed away right after giving birth to Kay," Alena said. "I've had her since day one. Since it was our very last chance to win this title, it means a lot to me."

The duo only attended two shows in 2024 to earn the title, the same schedule that earned them the top spot in 2023. The German Paint Championship and the European Paint Horse Championship were the largest events for Solid Paint-Bred competitors in Europe, and both also rank in the Top 10 shows for APHA worldwide. Wins there gave Alena and Kay a comfortable margin over the rest of the contenders.

Alena knew Kay would show up for her at the major events, as she has done in the past.

"I would say she always gives her best and has never let me down at a horse show," she said. "But she is very [quirky]. She absolutely hates it when they put on the neck ribbons—she doesn't like them touching her or getting in her space. In that situation, she always puts her mare face on."

Though next year's show season will look a little different, Alena knows she and her trusted mount will continue to do their best in the arena.

"Since I started showing Kay, it was always my biggest dream to end the year as No. 1," she said. "Now, we've done it five times!"

More Fun with Friends

Michele Guerra reaps the benefits of good friends and good teamwork.

1 Amateur Solid Paint-Bred Walk-Trot

Michele Guerra & PDF Original Aura

Qualifying Points: 67

Hometown: Madera, California

Horse's Stats: A 2015 bay solid mare by The Original Cowboy and out of Born Radical (QH)

Owner/Lessee: Michele Guerra

Breeder: Susan G. Wilcox, Rio Oso, California

It takes teamwork to make a dream work, and Michele Guerra and PDF Original Aura's 2024 Amateur Solid Paint-Bred Walk-Trot championship is a prime example of that mantra.

"It was a struggle—there aren't that many solids in our division, so we had to literally chase the nation for those points," Michele said. "We live in Central California so, for us, getting anywhere is far, but we went to Arizona a couple of times and we convinced our Arizona friends to come to California a few times."

With a tight-knit group of exhibitors, it was normal for Michele to share top placings with her friend, Mackenzie Russell, who finished second overall for the year.

"We were going back and forth all year, and it was super fun," Michele said. "I'd go down there, and she'd come up here for me, so we helped each other."

It all came down to the last show of the year. Michele had surgery just three weeks earlier, but she knew that if she didn't try, she wouldn't win. Luckily, the horsewoman was able to show and earned enough points to clinch the title. It was the perfect ending to a year showing with friends. The cherry on top was the opportunity to honor another close friend.

Michele's husband originally had "Aura" as a client's horse when the mare was 2. Three years ago, Michelle got a call asking if she'd take Aura back. Ruthanne Soeth, the horse's then-owner, was sick and knew she needed to find the right home for Aura.

"She didn't want Aura to go anywhere else," Michele said. "So every time I ride, it's for Ruthanne. Every time I post on Facebook, I'll say, 'This one's for you, Ruthanne.' My husband and I love that mare."

Michele has been married to her husband, Jando, for five years and credits him for helping her win. The horsewoman braids and bands horses for a living, traveling nearly every weekend to Paint and Quarter Horse circuits. She hopes to compete at more shows this year, hitting some larger events, not only to work but also as an exhibitor with Aura and her younger horses. Michele won't be alone in the saddle, though. Ruthanne will be along for the ride, at least in spirit.

Taking the Leap

Diving into APHA competition led Brooke Alva to priceless family memories and unexpected success.

1 Amateur Rookie of the Year

Brooke Alva & Sensational Cookie

Qualifying Points: 144

Hometown: Covina, California

Horse's Stats: A 2009 bay overo mare by Chips Cookie Monster (QH) and out of Zippos Fancy Gold

Horse's Owner/Lessee: Pamela Heisinger, Cherry Valley, California

Horse's Breeder: Paula & Nancy L. Kunkel, Bedford, Kentucky

Brooke Alva didn't have particularly high aspirations for the 2024 show season.

Though the California Amateur has been riding since high school, her focus had never really been on showing until she swung a leg over her mother's show horse, Sensational Cookie. Brooke's mother, Pamela, had taken a break from showing her mount of almost 12 years, and Brooke decided she'd like to discover what it was like to ride a pleasure horse.

"About five years ago, I thought, 'You know what? I've always wanted to ride one of those horses,' " she recalled. "I got on her, and it wasn't as easy as it looked."

After spending several years practicing and building a bond with "Cookie," Brooke decided to face her fears and step into the APHA show ring in 2024. She set a goal of simply showing up and doing her best at just two shows: the Zone 2 show and the Western National Championship Show, both in Las Vegas. Like most new exhibitors, Brooke felt slightly intimidated by the talented riders dotting the arena.

"I had no idea where I stood," she said. "When I got there [to Zone 2] people told me it was quite a show to get my feet wet at, and that made me even more nervous. But my very first class was equitation, and I ended up being the circuit champion in that and reserve in trail!"

Brooke credits both the seasoned mare and Pamela with helping to mold her into an all-around exhibitor in her first season.

"Cookie's the best horse anyone could ask for," Brooke said. "She's the closest thing to a real unicorn and is the best teammate. She's an overthinker, like me, so sometimes we battle on who's right and how to do the pattern. In the moment, it's frustrating, but when I find the right 'button' and figure out how to ask her, it's like I've learned something. She's made me a better rider and makes me work for it."

The success was sweet, but for Brooke, making memories with the people she loves was the highlight of the 2024 season. Showing sans trainer, the trips to Vegas with her family and "Team Cookie"—including Pamela and Brielle, Brooke's youngest daughter who showed Cookie in lead line—were full of moments she'll cherish for a lifetime. The talented mare has now carried three generations of horsewomen into the pen.

Brooke's 2025 goals remain humble despite a banner rookie year: add one more show to her schedule and continue to improve as a rider.

"I just want to continue mine and Cookie's connection, push ourselves and try to learn as much as we can along the way," she said. 📌

Willing & Winning

PS Remington and Youth rider Kennedy Beltz took the Top 20 Open Horse list by storm—all the way to the No. 1 spot.

1 Open Horse

PS Remington

Qualifying Points: 210.5

Horse's Stats: A 2017 bay overo gelding by Spooks Gotta Gun and out of Smart Chic Toy (QH)

Owner/Lessee: Kennedy G. Beltz, Friendswood, Texas

Breeder: Patsy Shelton Schutz, Pottsville, Texas

Finding the right horse is no easy endeavor, but sometimes you get lucky. That's how the Beltz family felt when they found PS Remington—"Bailey"—in December 2021 via a YouTube sale video. The Doritos-loving horse with the shiniest mane you'll ever see turned out to be the best leap of faith the Beltz family ever made.

"We didn't really know a lot about ranch horses because we had come from a [Western] pleasure background, and honestly, he caught our eyes because he was so pretty," owner Kennedy Beltz said. "In the video, he clearly had a lot of reining talent and a very nice cadence, but we also saw him going over poles, trot-overs and doing a drag, and he just looked incredibly chill and willing to do whatever he was asked."

Willing is right. The bay overo gelding dominated the Open division in 2024. Landing in top spot was a surprise to Kennedy, who says she didn't go into 2024 with the intention of seizing the title, especially as a Youth rider.

"It definitely wasn't a part of the plan. I wanted to win the Youth ranch [high-point award], so I was going after that goal, but I ended up showing him in the Open as well," Kennedy said. "Around October, my mom was like, 'Kennedy, there must be something wrong with this website because it's showing you're in the lead for Open.' We kept waiting for someone else to pass us up, but we just kept going to shows and the points kept getting higher. It really took us by surprise."

The bond between Kennedy and Bailey is special. The vaunted Youth rider believes their magic lies in the fact that they've matured and grown together.

"Our first show was a wreck," Kennedy recalled. "I took him into ranch trail, and we had to back a U around a windmill; he could only back straight lines, and he literally hit the windmill and it almost fell over. I laugh about it now, but there were so many trial-and-error moments in the beginning of us trying to figure things out. It was like a rookie on a rookie, and we learned everything together, but he's always been very forgiving and willing."

With so many honors under her belt buckle, including winning All-Around Youth Ranch championship at the 2024 APHA World Show, it would be easy to say that Kennedy has checked all the award boxes and then some. Now, though, her eyes are set on earning the APHA Performance Versatility Award.

"We always work together to do the best we can, and Bailey never stops working his absolute hardest," Kennedy said. 📌

A Spark of Hope

Earning a year-end title wasn't on owner Claire McClintock's radar, but Kissin Uptown earned her spot as a top ranch horse.

1 Open Solid Paint-Bred

Kissin Uptown

Qualifying Points: 103.5

Horse's Stats: A 2018 sorrel solid mare by Kissin The Girls (QH) and out of Give Me AFancy Scotch

Owner/Lessee: Claire McClintock, Pilot Point, Texas

Breeder: Cross Creek Farm, Flemingsburg, Kentucky

Like people, horses develop at their own pace, and no owner can testify to that as much as Claire McClintock. The Texas equestrienne's mare, Kissin Uptown, took a couple of years to come into her own as a competitive show horse, but now "Ruby" is fulfilling Claire's goals. It's a 180-degree shift from where Claire began her 2024 show season to where it ended.

"The journey was a little rough," she said. "I had a lot to work on with her, and I hadn't planned to show her much [in] the last six months of the year, but she just started progressing faster than I had thought. So, I added shows back to the calendar and decided to chase [the title]."

To earn her top spot, Claire showed at a couple of Paint shows in Waco, Texas, along with the 2024 APHA World Championship Show and the Eastern National Championship. Claire bought the mare when Ruby was 4 and invested in her training. While Ruby wasn't bred or built like a typical ranch rider, Claire was drawn to her "fancy front leg" and determined to follow her gut instinct that said to buy the mare.

"Ruby came from Michigan; I saw a video of her doing the English rail class, and I do the ranch classes. I didn't know what I would do with her, but with the way she moved and her arena presence, I had to buy her," Claire said. "I had her in some programs, and they also had challenges. I knew I was playing with fire when I bought her because she wasn't the norm, so after the 2024 Paint World, I took her home from the trainer. Since July 3, I've been the only person to ride her. I tried to cater to her bloodlines and not what I did in the past riding reiners and ranch horses. It was a hard journey, but I learned a lot from her. It was worth it."

It was in Ohio, at the Eastern National Championship, that Claire felt a spark of hope for her would-be ranch riding horse. Headed into the event, Claire questioned her gut, but after earning several titles there, she was back on track.

"At the Eastern Championship, everything clicked—it brought hope back to the situation," she said. "I was excited again, and we were back on track. This award inspired me. I have shows on the calendar for 2025 now."

‘Change’ of Pace

Ris Key Delta explored new challenges en route to capturing the No. 1 Six PAC Top Five title.

1 Six PAC Top Five

Ris Key Delta

Qualifying Credits: 404

Horse's Stats: A 2018 bay tobiano gelding by Diaman H Strait Olena and out of Diaman H Risky Flyer

Owner/Lessee: Kristin Davies, East Rochester, Ohio

Breeder: Jeremy P. Lockard, Randalia, Iowa

The Greek letter “Delta” symbolizes change in math and science. It’s a fitting description for Kristin Davies’ 2018 bay tobiano gelding as well, who spent 2024 exploring new challenges and becoming a seasoned show horse.

Kristin, a science teacher and chemistry expert for several artificial intelligence companies, bought “Delta” as a weanling, and they’ve been inseparable ever since. He’s even related to Kristin’s very first horse, Hollywood Texan. Kristin has done all of Delta’s training, and they’ve been showing for about three years.

“My two main goals for 2024 were to try new disciplines with Delta and for both of us to relax and have fun at the shows,” Kristin said.

They showed in mountain trail and cattle classes for the first time in 2024—Delta was a natural, Kristin says. Speed events weren’t new to Delta, but Kristin says he kicked his performance into a higher gear and became more competitive in those events, too.

“My favorite experience was taking Delta to a cutting clinic,” Kristin said. “It was the most horses he had ever been with in an arena, and his first time seeing cattle and bison. We both learned so much together that day, both about cutting and about trusting each other.”

The experience of training Delta herself has been incredibly rewarding.

“Delta is the first horse I have trained entirely on my own, which makes it really special to know that everything he knows, he learned from me,” she said.

Wrapping up a second year of PAC participation, Delta added five Certificates of Recognition to his record, along with Certificates of Achievement in showmanship, walk-trot, ranch and cattle, and trail. They also earned a PAC Versatility Champion title.

“I see it as a testament to his versatility and trainability and the bond we have built over the past six years,” Kristin said. “I love the PAC program because it is a way for me to show the world how amazing Delta is without requiring the financial commitment of traditional shows.

“In 2025, I hope to continue building my bond with Delta, refining my cues and trying new disciplines. Last fall, I brought home Delta’s 2024 maternal half-brother, Risky Little Rebel. This summer, I hope to progress Delta in his training far enough that we can safely pony ‘Doppler’ on trail rides, so we can bring him with us on our adventures.”

2024 PBRIP HIGH-POINT CHAMPION

1 2024 PBRIP High-Point Champion

Speedin In Traffic & Carol Waters

Qualifying Points: 149

Horse's Stats: A 2020 sorrel tobiano mare by Traffic Guy (QH) and out of Speedin For Cash

Owner/Lessee/Breeder: Carol E. Waters, Red Rock, Oklahoma

Topping the Paint Barrel Racing Incentive Program's 1D division and earning 149 total points, Speedin In Traffic and owner Carol Waters of Red Rock, Oklahoma, won the 2024 PBRIP Year-End Championship title. This award recognizes PBRIP's highest total point-earner.

Speedin In Traffic is a 2020 sorrel tobiano mare by Traffic Guy (QH) and out of Speedin For Cash. The mare won close to $30,000 for Carol in 2024.

"The highlight was winning this saddle—that was my goal. I went to all of the Paint races to try and win it," Carol said. "This was a futurity horse. At the beginning of the year, she was up and down and then had some time off. She came back winning and slowly worked her way up from placing in the 1D to winning it. Winning her first 1D buckle this fall was another highlight, and she placed at the BFA [Breeders Futurity of America 4-Year-Old Futurity]. By the end of the year, she was really rocking and winning."

Carol's been a PBRIP fan since the beginning, and "Fancy" isn't her only success story. She had a second horse—Blazin For Cash, a 2018 sorrel overo mare who is also out of Speedin For Cash—finish as the 1D reserve champion for 2024. The two horses represent the third-generation of Carol's speed-bred breeding program. The horsewoman says she plans to flush an embryo from Fancy and continue competing with the mare.

The PBRIP overall reserve champion for 2024 is Yogis Shawne Twister, a 2015 chestnut solid mare owned by Hele Bon Thompson of Yale, Oklahoma. The mare earned 125 total PBRIP points last year and clinched Top Five spots in the PBRIP 2D and 3D as well.

PBRIP is an incentive program that provides sidepots for participating Paint barrel racers at events around the country. It bridges the gap between barrel racers who run Paints and APHA by making it easier for them to participate in the organization without having to attend traditional breed shows.

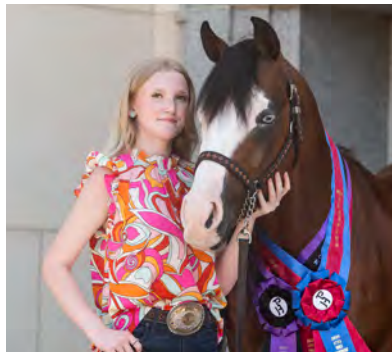

Carol, Hele and other PBRIP winners will be honored July 5 at the Will Rogers Memorial Center in Fort Worth, Texas, during the PBRIP Barrel Racing Sweepstakes awards presentation at the APHA World Championship Show. 📌

Congratulations to the 2024 PBRIP year-end champions:

apha Xtras

You'll love them.

" Big shout out to the APHA Xtras program for saving us a lot of money on our new John Deere lawn mower! APHA members are missing out if they're not taking advantage of this benefit. "

- Patty Baker

Saving Money is Easy

APHA Xtras reward you for being an APHA member by saving you money on products and services from companies you know and trust. You save money on purchases while helping support APHA. Using just one of the many options available can return the cost of your APHA membership in savings.

Take advantage of great offers from our Xtras Partners – help APHA – and put some Xtra money in your pocket!
